MEMORY MATCH

Print out two copies of the character cards. Ask an adult to help you cut out the cards. Flip the cards over and take turns finding matches!

NOTE: In order to help your cards last longer you may want to print them on cardstock, glue the page to light cardboard before cutting them out or laminate the cards.

SMITTY, SMITTY, WHERE'S YOUR BONE?

Children sit in a semicircle with one child sitting in a chair facing away from the group. Place a toy bone, or beanbag under the chair. One child is chosen to go “steal the bone”. All of the children then sit with their hands behind their backs and say, “Smitty, Smitty, where’s your bone? Someone stole it from your home.” The child who’s playing “Smitty” then turns around and tries to guess who has the bone.

SMITTY SAYS

Based on Simon Says, preface the commands with “Smitty Says,” Use appropriate dog tricks or behaviors such as: lie down, beg for a treat, roll over, speak (woof), scratch your ear, wag your tail, show your tongue and pant.

DOGGIE BALLOON

This game can be played indoors or outdoors. For this game, purchase a bag of round balloons. You should have enough balloons for each guest plus one balloon with the message inside for each game. Insert a piece of paper with a dog trick message into the balloon before inflating the balloon. The trick could be instructions to “howl at the moon,” “pant like a dog,” “roll over” or some other “trick of choice.” Play a portion of a dog inspired song. While the songs are playing, you can toss the balloons in the air and to each other. When the music is stopped, everyone grabs one balloon nearest them. They all must pop their balloon by sitting on it. Whoever has the one with the trick inside must do the trick. Continue with another balloon game until all the tricks are all done. There are no winners here...just a lot of fun!
